Unaddict can save you a lot of time with just one click. The best thing about Unaddict is that it doesn't have any settings. - Muhammad 25/01/2017 The best thing about Unaddict is that it doesn't have any settings. It takes a while for the first reminder, but after that it's working great. - Peter 29/05/2016 It takes a while for the first reminder, but after that it's working great. Bummer about the "How is it?" thing. I wish it could work on different tabs without that. - Trey 12/07/2016 Bummer about the

“How is it?” thing. I wish it could work on different tabs without that. Unaddict is a simple and efficient way to save time on addicting websites. - Marc 28/06/2016 Unaddict is a simple and efficient way to save time on addicting websites. I am loving it. And I am finally getting around to testing the timer. Today's Paper » NATIONAL » TAMIL NADU Mosquito menace Kannur: Mosquitoes can be seen hanging around in abundance in many places during the monsoon. At some places, they could be found even in the house itself. The nuisance caused by mosquitoes is leading to a number of health problems. At places like Hill Top, Arayur, Kadayiruppu and Attingal, it is a common sight to see people wearing masks as they are bitten by the insect. It is always advisable to use mosquito repellent sprays or

If you like the games "left 4 dead" and "resistance 3", you'll surely appreciate this addon. Keymacro lets you use the keyboard to help you survive. You can use a combination of keys to make a task easier. For example, F3+F7+F8 will make the character use a sniper rifle, F3+F8+F7 will make them reload, and so on. Keymacro has a nice interface. You can decide which keys to use, and what they are called, as well as customize them to your liking. It's also very light and efficient, yet will not slow down your computer. A word of caution. Although this addon has proved to be incredibly useful for those who play games, it may be difficult for others. Keymacro does use the keyboard, so it's probably a good idea to test it before buying it. If you have any problems with the addon, you can report it at the author's forum. Keymacro is a rather interesting and useful addon. It's pretty stable, light, and efficient. Those who like games can use it to increase their productivity. It's not exactly a necessity, but it sure is worth trying if you're planning to waste some time in the gaming section of the world wide web.

KEYMACRO's reviews: 9/10 Keymacro is an interesting addon for those who play games. It could be improved though, and would be even more useful if the author created some optional features. This extension might be a great choice if you use your keyboard a lot, and are planning to play a lot of games. 8/10 Keymacro works great and is light and efficient. There is room for improvement though. It could be more useful if the author added more features. Those who use their keyboard a lot can be very pleased with this addon. 5/10 Keymacro does not work properly. The author should try to fix some of the issues with this addon. It does not deserve a five out of ten because of that.

KEYMACRO's support: This addon is maintained by its author and is available for download at Addon DB. The author is also available for support. Keymacro should not cause any harm to your computer. Still, it might not be for everyone. Those who play games and use their keyboard a lot will surely appreciate the addon. FUNCTIONS KEYMACRO's features: KEYMAC 77a5ca646e

Unaddict is an add-on extension for Google Chrome that wants to help you break your addiction for the addictive web. This extension blocks your visits to the most addicting websites, and prevents you from wasting too much time on them. Unaddict works very similarly to the Hoverwatch addon, so if you like using that one, you'll love Unaddict as well. Unaddict, an interesting Chrome extension, was created in order to save any user from wasting their time on addicting websites. If you can't stop yourself browsing Facebook from one minute to the other, or simply spend too much time on YouTube, this neat extension will help you overcome your addiction. It does that with a simple and friendly reminder, helping you remember that you're productivity is at stake.

It's simple, and it's definitely useful. How easy is it to operate? In one word: simple. The application has only one task and that is to stop you from wasting your time. Once installed, the extension will sit in the upper right corner, next to the address bar. From there you can click the icon, and a small menu will emerge. Submit the website address you'd like to stop visiting that often, and the extension will immediately register it. If you do want to slow your productiveness, or simply decide you want to have some time to waste on the internet, you can deactivate the site following an equally simple procedure, by clicking the slider next to the website in the list. It's as easy as pie. What happens after I activate the extension? After successfully submitting websites for the addon to block, each time you will try to access one of the blacklisted addresses, a friendly reminder will be displayed, helping you remember the fact that wasting time on the internet could lead to a drop in your productivity. The extension is definitely efficient. Unaddict is an easy to use extension and tool if you're planning to raise your productiveness or if you'd like to establish some healthy habits while using the internet. There is no harm in trying the addon as it does not imply any costs or obligations. If you want to start becoming more productive, your secret weapon could very well be Unaddict.
