I have a solution in VS2010 under Visual Studio Team Services (aka Visual Studio Online) and I was trying to build it yesterday, but the Build FAILED - no matching builds found error was shown. Since then, I couldn't re-propose the build. I got some suggestions from SO, and now I'm trying to set the version tag again, but still I get the same error message. What should I do to re-propose the build? A: Once you can refresh your build definition to get a clean build, you should be able to repropose the build again. Note that you may need to wait for your build to complete before being able to repropose. Velitis coffeana Velitis coffeana is a species of moth of the family Tortricidae. It is found in Ghana. The wingspan is about 14 mm. The ground colour of the forewings is rather dark, but the suffusions are whitish with more or less indistinct black spots. The markings are dark brown, consisting of a transverse, rather broad band, strongly limited on the dorsum and narrowing at the costa. There is also a brownish patch on the base. The hindwings are pale brownish cream, but paler basally. E
