Q: Rename Windows Phone 8 emulator's 8:00 AM - 9:00 AM device time zone Is there any way to change the Windows Phone 8 emulator's device time zone, to a region where my time is not so strict? I'm in New Zealand, and the device is set to GMT+12 in the emulator. This makes the device go to sleep at around 11pm, and wake up at 1am, which is hardly realistic. I've checked the Windows Phone SDK documentation, but I can't see any mention of the time zone being controlled in the emulator itself. I'm running Windows 8, with the Windows Phone SDK installed. A: As of Windows Phone 8 SDK update 1, the emulator does not persistently change the time zone of the device when emulating. You can choose an arbitrary time zone for the emulator, but these will not persist across emulator sessions (i.e. when you close and reopen the emulator). When you change the time zone of the Android emulator, it is persisted in the path you specify in the settings for the emulator, but for Windows Phone 8 there's no such thing. Note that this is the same result as if you were to change the time zone of your device manually. Q: Cannot get JavaScript/jQuery
