"Thank you for reading the book, I am your new landlord." The Lodgers' landlord is already a legend in House 13. He should be – it's probably his first request to the tenants: move his furniture into the night. When the tenants come home he asks for "furniture" and he is being done in. Slowly one after the other he finds out that he's right about the furniture – some of the rooms aren't furnished any longer. But how does he know that? It's the same every day, the same hour. No one else seems to be affected. Just him. Is it because he's not the last one? "The lodgers, pick up your guns." House 13 is haunted – something's hunting our heroes. Something that's not content with killing people: it wants to kill more people and much more animals. Unexplained murders, mutilated animals, and disappearances make the word to go abroad – something is coming. And everyone in the town is afraid. Are you looking for new supernatural horrors from the 80's? Then how about the Twin Paradises, a sci-fi game with a fantastic storyline and an epic campaign – that takes place in two fantastic worlds – the 80's and the future? This unique two worlds campaign will be a true experience for all players who would love to travel on different timeframes. Have you ever found a true friend in a video game? Now you have your chance to do so in Twin Paradises: The Lodgers of House 13. It's not easy to find friends in the apocalyptic future. And the hostile environment will make you find your companions only in the strangest places. You will make new friends, fall in love, experience the horror, and then die in a worse way than ever. Do you have what it takes to survive? A must-have if you enjoy horror games. This game is recommended for everyone. Product Release: In Final Fantasy XV, Noctis undertakes a journey to the fabled world of the Crystal Beaches, and with the help of his comrade Ignis, he meets Noctis's paternal uncle Adel, King Regis of Aterne, and the mysterious and alluring Cid. Following the outbreak of the mysterious "Fallen Angel," Noctis and his companions race to the Lake of Dragons to save the world" c9d1549cdd

Rough Cut Video brings you classic films in a whole new way by allowing you to make choices during the viewing of the film to affect its outcome or reveal hidden information. These interactive versions of films are made by capturing a popular film, editing it to remove the film's original plot, and adding choice elements based on the choices made by people watching the rough cut. The viewer's choices interact with the edited film to alter its outcome by providing different plot elements, and affect the film's ending in a unique and different way compared to the original film. Synopsis: The film begins with a mysterious masked figure stalking a boat trip. As they journey upstate to spend a weekend with their families, they are still pursued by the murderer, from whom they continuously try to flee, until they arrive at their destination at the country house of their 'hosts'. It is then that the killer reveals himself and begins to terrorize and murder the assembled relatives of the host family. In this version, you'll play as the murderer and follow a deadly path of choosing who to harm and what to do. Gameplay: Like any game, the important thing is to make the right choices and collect the right items. Your choices affect the flow of the game. In this game you'll use the following items: *The Key is a special item you only acquire during a cutscene or when it's revealed to you. It's one of the things in the film that was originally plotted but was deleted when it was edited down to make the film a choose-your-own-adventure type, such as the film 'Doctor Doom'. You must have the key to enter a building, save a character, and access other collectible items or to move forward in the game. When you get it, you'll be prompted to hit a button in the game. Hit the button and you'll immediately access the item. *The Phone is used when a character is trapped in a room. Go to the phone in the room they're trapped in and press the red button or you'll be unable to move forward in the game. You'll also be able to hear a character talk to you from the other side of the room. *An Ammeter is used to measure the intensity of a scene. When the meter is at its peak, hit the OK or END button to stop the scene. You'll get a message when the meter goes to its peak. *A Comb is used to pick up certain items. Look
