GameLink: ===== Hysterectomy has been shown to reduce the risk of ovarian cancer, but these risk reductions might be found in only the subset of women with a low risk of ovarian cancer. While endometrial cancer has been inversely associated with hysterectomy for as long as endometrial cancer has been described, it was not known whether hysterectomy alters the risk of other gynecologic cancers until recently. In a population-based study conducted in Sweden, investigators reported that hysterectomy was inversely associated with ovarian and endometrial cancer, but not with other gynecologic cancers. Another study conducted in Great Britain reported that endometrial cancer risk was inversely associated with hysterectomy, but only among the subset of women with endometrial cancer diagnosed before age 45. The authors concluded that hysterectomy may be beneficial for women at a low risk of endometrial cancer. While these findings are provocative, the following issues merit further study: 1) whether hy

What's new in Schoolbreak.io:

If you've been following us for awhile, you might remember that the $300 costume special on Thanksgiving weekend included a Mystery Shape - a phantom skydiver shape that offered a new costume for the contest. The drawing was held on Tuesday, and the result was revealed Thursday, November 19th. The prize, for the winner, was a christmas Costume special - it will be released in the Shop on the 15th of December! Check for news about it on our Facebook Page. But wait! Hiding in the shadows is a little gift from us to you. Remember, the Collector Costume, released last month in special in the Halloween Day Sale, is also included in the "extras" category. So if you missed out this time - don't fret - there's more to come... The Mystery Costume was also released last December, but Echoed Memories was too late to include it in the Special of the year. This time Echoed Memories took full advantage of the Secrets we have foiled - and therefore merriment - your rainbow coloring senses will welcome this addition to our roster of the best seasonal stock items! But wait!!! There's MORE!!!! In fact, as my ears are ringing and my mind is still reeling from the festive sound of now three costumes that have been released to consumers in such short amounts of time, I am staggered by the guestie beside me. That's right - she's been waiting for her costume as well! Although you can't see it from the picture, the color has been permanently altered from the original - to Wonderland Pink. There is no way to simulate the look of the original color of the costume. The Secret had been revealed, and if I'm not mistaken, the Rainbow Scarf had been unlocked and ended up being handed to a collector. And to think it was BETA!!! In addition to the two full costumed dates that were added this month and last, there have been two "Christmas Moments" events in this cluster of releases. The first came on Friday, Dec 5th, when the Azure-themed Thirsty Elf purchased the Mysterious "Eyesore" (Eyesore being a catchphrase for the Headspace team throughout the sweepstakes) to use the Genie Magic Mirrors and discover the secret of its colors. The second came on Friday, Dec 12th when the Black Cat Girl purchased the Potion (Read: Fancy Drink) in the Goofy Genie
