Click on "Show" to show the hidden content! Best Cheesecake everrrrr!! I actually made this myself and it was delicious!! You take: 400g fat free crumbles 30g icing sugar 60g soft light brown sugar 2 eggs 1tsp vanilla essence 12oz fat free natural yoghurt 40g plain flour 2tsp baking powder 1tsp baking soda Heat the oven to 175*. Tear up the egg. Mix the yolk and 1/2 of the egg white, and set aside the egg white. In a separate bowl mix together the soft brown sugar, vanilla essence, and yoghurt. Add the eggs and mix. Add the flour, baking powder and baking soda. Stir them in well. Pour the mixture into a greased and lined 20cm sweetened round tin. Place into the oven for 20mins, then turn the oven off, and let the cheesecake sit in the oven (with the door closed) for a minimum of 3 hours. Serve hot or cold. You know the cheesecake is right when it goes from soft to hard. You can eat the rest of the cheesecake while it cooks. My cream cheese was slightly softer, so this was perfect. 1 comment: oh my word, this looks fabulous! I don't usually look at recipe (literally) but I just have to try it. It would be perfect for my girls' birthday party coming up- I'll post the recipe... thanks for your kind words :)Traditionally, fund account reporting, such as for purposes of compliance with various reporting obligations to which a money market fund is subject, and trading operations have been performed manually.
