The first module is my text editor, and the other ones are the plug-ins I'm going to install, that are written in python. When I run the program it gives me errors. I'm trying to install some text formats like docx and pdf, so that's why I need them. The text editor opens when it's launched and runs, but when it tries to open the PDF or DOCX it gets stuck. I don't have any errors. Here's my code: import PyQt4 from PyQt4 import QtGui,QtCore,Qt from gui_widget import Ui_MainWindow class GuiMainWindow(QtGui

A large photo on the wall, showing a smiling guy and three attractive women, was the only item of decor. "She's dead. She died in January. The detective came to the office today to tell us and I just never got around to calling you." "I'm so sorry. What happened?" "Heart attack, apparently. She was alone up there. You know, there's been an order put on all your bank accounts to secure them. In her will, she left everything to the Cause. It's a religious group she was involved in and it cost her her home and everything." "I didn't know she had a religious group." "It's a new one on me. The detective says that she only mentioned it to him the last time he saw her." "I don't know what she was doing up there." "She obviously kept her religious group as a secret from her family, so they are really upset. She didn't have any family except you and she did mention you the last time I talked to her." "Oh, I'm sure they'll come around in time. I'll be home for a few days to put things in order." "I have been talking to her attorney and he says that we have a month to take
