CADMATE 2020 Professional Free Download (32 64 Bit) Â· July 30, 2019Â .Barcelona president Josep Maria Bartomeu has claimed that Jesus Navas is Barcelona's best player on current form - following the departure of Neymar to Paris Saint-Germain. The 27-year-old has spent the past three seasons at the Camp Nou but has struggled to find a place in the team since the arrival of Neymar, joining Alvaro Morata and Dani Alves as a high-profile casualty. Barca are now without Neymar and Morata, but Bartomeu believes Navas could be the man to fill the void. Speaking at the pre-match press conference for the Champions League quarter-final first leg against Atletico Madrid, Bartomeu said: "Jesus Navas is right now, he has been one of the best players in the squad in the last season. It has been a difficult season for the whole squad, when Barca lose a player like Neymar it's very hard. "In football the behaviour of the clubs is that when you lose a player everyone is depressed and you don't play like we have to play, but we have to believe, we are good enough to adapt and above all to be able to continue. "We have a lot of strength in this squad, we have a lot of good players and we will have to do our best to make this squad go as best as we can." Bartomeu denied rumours that Dani Alves, 34, is set to leave the club, insisting that he was the "only player from the Santos [Barca youth academy] players who has stayed with us". The Blaugrana president also had strong words for Atletico, claiming
