When you are doing soul work, or just trying to find your way in life, ask yourself what is the truth of the question? If you are asked a question, you must be willing to give it thought, rather than asking you and your guide to translate the question. For example: "What path would I take in a relationship?" What does this question mean? What is the truth of the question? Do you desire something different? If you are reading the cards, you are forming your own rules and new truths for life. All you need is a click . insight into your life situation. Your guides and angels are ready to help you get clarity and help guide you in your life, no matter what form it takes. In the cards, the Queen's thoughts and desires are being revealed to you. Through the cards, you can explore your deeper desires, understand yourself better, and the choices that are best for you to make. As you explore the paths of your life, you will come to understand more of your guides If you are feeling depressed and disconnected from yourself and your life, then your guides are trying to bring you into balance. As a result, their impressions are showing you an external manifestation of your own soul. Through the cards, you can find comfort in the fact that the cards are representing what your soul's message is. You'll feel your guides are trying to help you resolve the challenge, and, the more you work with the images, the stronger the bonds become. I created a deck of oracle cards that will unite each of the archangels as a guide in your journey to higher levels of spiritual understanding. Through exploring the wisdom of the angels we get to have first-hand knowledge of Ascension and divine love. The card works with our own energies, with the energies of higher realities, with angels and the spirits of other planes. The latter will always give us messages that are very clear and true for us. The angels share their knowledge of the highest level of ascension and higher dimensions. They have been and will be my personal guides and I will see them in visions sometimes. Here is a sample of what they have been sharing:
