by Katie A Baker. The novel of the second level is written in the past tense. Laney Morales' dream of playing football in Mazatlán, Mexico soon turns into a nightmare. She, along with her friend, comes to this heavenly city in the hope that here she will be able to reveal her sports talents and become a real football star, and her dreams begin to come true. But without even having time to enjoy the new sensations, Laney learns the terrible truth - she is in this, as in most Katie A Baker novels, there are both positive aspects and As a lover of the sports genre, I highly recommend this novel.
